

Great Books Council of San Francisco
announces the 2019
Leader-Reader Workshop
on
MARCH 9, SATURDAY

Join our Great Books workshop to meet with enthusiastic readers from around northern California. Bring friends from your discussion group. Our location will be announced soon. Don't wait: Send in your registration and receive your materials early.

Now is the time to get everybody on the same page for your book discussions. We offer this workshop each year. We'll go over the basics of leading and active reading. How do you prepare for a robust book discussion? How do you lead an engaging book discussion?

What's so special about Great Books and the shared inquiry approach? Find out the secret to its vitality. It started in 1947 under the leadership of Robert Maynard Hutchens and Mortimer Adler at the University of Chicago.

The day is a bargain. $40 covers the advance reading materials, refreshments, lunch, and friendly practice sessions. Both new and experienced Great Bookies are welcome. We start at 9:30 a.m. and end by 4 p.m.

For more information, contact Kay White at (415) 382-1927 or kaycleveland@aol.com

Sign up right away to get your materials in plenty of time.
Registration ends February 28!

Refunds can only be made if funds are available after all expenses are paid.
