

Long Novel Weekend 2019

Dates: July 27-28, 2019

Venue: Vallombrosa Center, Menlo Park, California

We will discuss

The Brothers Karamazov By Fyodor Dostoevsky

About the book: Freud called The Brothers Karamazov “the most magnificent novel ever written.”

The Brothers Karamazov is regarded among the greatest literary works of all time. Vonnegut, in Slaughterhouse Five, wrote that “...there is one other book, that can teach you everything you need to know about life. It’s The Brothers Karamazov, by Fyodor Dostoevsky.” Einstein considered The Brothers Karamazov to be “the supreme summit of all literature” and said that he had learned more from Dostoevsky than any other thinker. The book was also hugely inspirational to a number of the most influential philosophers of the 20th century, including Freud, Wittgenstein, Heidegger, and Camus, the last of whom declared that Dostoevsky, not Marx, was the great prophet for the 20th century.

It is a murder mystery, a courtroom drama, and an exploration of erotic rivalry in a series of triangular love affairs involving the “wicked and sentimental” Fyodor Pavlovich Karamazov and his three sons—the impulsive and sensual Dmitri; the coldly rational Ivan; and the healthy, red-cheeked young novice Alyosha. Through the gripping events of their story, Dostoevsky portrays the whole of Russian life, its social and spiritual striving, in what was both the golden age and a tragic turning point in Russian culture.

About the Author: Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky (1821-1881) was a Russian novelist, short story writer, essayist, journalist and philosopher.

Dostoevsky's literary works explore human psychology in the troubled political, social, and spiritual atmospheres of 19th-century Russia, and engage with a variety of philosophical and religious themes. Dostoevsky was influenced by a wide variety of philosophers and authors including Pushkin, Gogol, Augustine, Shakespeare, Dickens, Balzac, Hugo, Poe, Plato, Kant, Hegel, Schiller, Sand, and Hoffmann. His writings were widely read both within and beyond his native Russia and influenced an equally great number of later writers including Russians like Aleksandr

Solzhenitsyn and Anton Chekhov as well as philosophers such as Friedrich Nietzsche and Jean-Paul Sartre.

We will use the Farrar, Straus and Giroux paperback with award-winning translation by Pevear and Volokhonsky (1st edition) published June 14, 2002.

This translation was the Winner of Pen/Book- of-the-Month Club Translation Prize.

Dostoevsky wrote,
“Man is a mystery: if you spend your entire life trying to puzzle it out, then do not say that you have wasted your time. I occupy myself with this mystery, because I want to be a man.”
